Stories of the South

in every bite

At MuchoSur, we believe that every territory tells its own story through flavor—honoring ingredients born from the land and the hands that transform them with respect, memory, and ancestral knowledge.

This menu is a book of living stories: tales that sprout in forgotten valleys, ripen under generous suns, and are passed down from generation to generation around hearths where time moves differently. Each dish is a chronicle, each ingredient a protagonist—meant to be named, celebrated, and savored with intention.

Because respecting and celebrating the culture of the South also means sitting at its table, listening to its voices, and honoring every story that arrives on your plate.

STORYTELLER OF THE STORIES OF THE SOUTH

Maria Luisa Flores

Maria Luisa Flores—our beloved Malú—cooks the way one tells a story: with soul and memory. In her hands, the humble ingredients of the South are transformed into narratives of land, time, and tradition. Each dish is a journey where flavor becomes language and the heart becomes territory.

Born in Caracas and trained as an actress, model, and cook, she has traveled the world discovering cultures and flavors that now intertwine in her way of creating. Her experience both at the stove and in front of the camera has taught her that emotion, too, can be served on a plate. At MuchoSur, her voice becomes flavor: a narrator of the South who turns memory into art and every bite into a shared story.
